Of the DIRECTOR

As I reflect on what has been happening at the Library since my last letter, I see that we have been really busy again. We had our annual fall yard sale in October and our Roast Beef dinner. Our roast beef dinner was pretty successful with a lot of compliments on the food. If you haven't tasted Melvin's roast beef, you are missing a real treat. We'll let you know in plenty of time when the next one will be held, and hopefully you can plan to attend. We also prepared lunches for 325 Allegheny Power linemen who were working to repair the damaged lines from our surprise October snowstorm.

All of this activity reminds me that we simply could not function without our wonderful group of volunteers who always come through. We are planning to have a volunteers meeting later this week. Some of our volunteers are fairly new and some have been with us forever, so we thought it would be good to get together and share experiences and knowledge with each other. Our number one goal of course is customer service and the more knowledge we have, the better we can assist you with your research, membership questions, etc. approaches, it would be a good time for everyone to see what information they are seeking and send in your requests for research. Our volunteers will do a brief look-up for a birth or death date or any single piece of information for free. extensive research requires a fee of $6.00/hour for members and $10,00/hour for nonmembers. You may e-mail us your requests at hcpd@hackerscreek.com or you may submit them online at www.hackerscreek.com/request.htm.

24 April 2005 Letter from John F. DORMAN, editor The Virginia Genealogist

In filing the latest issue of Hacker's Creek Journal, which arrived yesterday, I have noted that I am missing a copy of the third issue of Volume XXII (2004). I always enjoy reading the articles and frequently refer back to the earlier copies in my research. If it is possible to secure a replacement of the missing third issue, I shall much appreciate receiving it.

In the current issue Mr. HOOD's "Interim Report on George Collins" was especially interesting. He is to be commended for his careful analysis of the evidence and I look forward to the next installment. I might add a comment to his question in the final paragraph whether George COLLINS, after going to school, lost his ability to write many years later. In one of the Revolutionary War pensions which I examined years ago (unfortunately I cannot put my hands on the precise citation), the government had questioned the identity of the soldier's widow since her husband had signed their marriage bond in the 1780s but had made his mark to documents when he applied for a pension in the 1830s. Testimony was provided that after some forty or fifty years living in a remote community where he had no occasion to write, he had lost the ability to do so. The pension was eventually granted.

Since Mr. Hood descends from George COLLINS' son Hezekiah, he is probably well aware that there was a Hezekiah COLLINS who in 1832 as a resident of Union Twp., Madison Co., Ohio, applied for a pension (R.20343, not granted) stating that he had enlisted in 1777 in Albemarle Co., Va. Since Madison County is in the same part of southeast Ohio as Warren County, where George's brother John settled, perhaps the Albemarle County reference may be a clue. At any rate, I pass it along for what it may be worth

I wish the society success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Editor's Note: Betty Ann sent Mr. DORMAN the requested back issue.

න හ හ හ හ හ හ Granite Marker for Henry Flesher

The Trans-Allegheny Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and HCPD member Russell DEVINNEY are jointly sponsoring the placement of the bronze insignia in memory of Henry FLESHER on the Lewis County Courthouse lawn as well as an insignia on the grave of his son, Adam FLESHER, at the old Butcher Cemetery, Butchersville, just outside of Weston.

Both men served in the American Revolution, the senior FLESHER serving as 2nd lieutenant in Captain William LOWTHER's Augusta militia company beginning in 1778 and the son as a defender of the frontier at Buckhannon Fort and Richard's Fort 1778-1784.

The bronze insignia for Henry FLESHER will be embedded in a granite marker to be purchased with donations solicited from Henry Flesher's descendants. The marker will be purchased and installed at the cost of $600 from Kiddy Monument Co., Weston. It is hoped that the granite marker can be in place in time for a dedication of the insignia markers on May 27, 2006.

If you are a descendant of Henry FLESHER, your participation in this exciting event is solicited. Send checks to Theresa BLAKE, treasurer, Trans-Allegheny Chapter, DAR, PO Box 400, Lost Creek, WV 26385-0400

Jacob D. Marple, His Parents, His Wives and the Mother of His Children by Linda Brake Meyers

Jacob D. Marple
Chrislip Cemetery - 1994
Pepper, Barbour County, West Virginia

In all probability Jacob D. Marple was the son of John Abram and Barbara (WEAVER) Marple, born in 1800, although his birthdate, calculated from his tombstone death age would be 26 December 1799. His parentage has not been proven by primary documents.

John Abram Marple was born 18 October 1764. Birthdate from the Moses Marple family Bible reads: "John A. Marple was Born October the 18, 1764." In the Application for Widow's Bounty, by Barbara Ann (WEAVER) Marple, John was listed as born in Pennsylvania in 1775, which was more likely her birthdate. His full name was given in a sketch about Albinos Reger Marple, in Cutright's, History of Upshur County "Albinos"

¹. Moses Marple Bible: Iris Lambert Hall, 2819 5th Avenue, Pueblo, CO 81003. This Bible was found at a yard sale in Lewis County, West Virginia. Four pages were intact, four were missing. Lorene Dodrill: Bible was owned by Izola Marple, Rt. 1, Box 159, Buckhannon, WV.

Reger Marple is a farmer in Warren District, owning three hundred and eight acres of good land on the waters of Hacker's Creek, was born January 27, 1834, the son of John W. Marple and the grandson of John Abram Marple and Barbara WEAVER of Pennsylvania." Gideon Marple, grandson of Amos referred to his great-grandfather as "Abraham Marple". In the Columbia Helen Marple family Bible, John is listed as John "Adrian" Marple and some family member believe this to be his true name.

In Cutright's History of Upshur County, in a sketch on Granville Dexter Marple, son of Moses, he says: "His father (Moses) was the son of John Marple and Barbara WEAVER of Pennsylvania. His grandfather was a soldier in the War of 1812 and emigrated from Pennsylvania to Virginia in 1815, when his father was eighteen years of age."

The above statement may be correct, but at the time of John and Barbara's marriage on 11 November 1794,5 the WEAVER family was living in Monongalia County, Virginia. John and Barbary may have lived in Pennsylvania but since several of the census say some of the children were born in Virginia, Barbary may have gone to Monongalia, Virginia, to her parents, for the birth of her children. Or another explanation could lie in the fluctuating boundary lines between the two states culminating in the Mason-Dixon line drawn after the birth of John in 1764. In 1779 the line was extended to mark the southern boundary of Pennsylvania with Virginia, now West Virginia. His war service was associated with both states.6 In 1850, Moses told census takers he was born in Virginia and Barbara, who was living with Moses was age 79, also born in Virginia. In 1870, Moses, Eliza and Amos all said they were born in Virginia. In 1880. Amos told census takers that he was born in West Virginia, his father in Pennsylvania and his mother in Pennsylvania. The same year his brother, John WEAVER Marple, told them that he was born in Pennsylvania, his father in Maryland and his mother in Pennsylvania. In 1850 and 1860, Jacob D. Marple told census takers he was born in Virginia.

In 1840 John A. and Barbara MARPLE were probably the male and female, both 70-80, living with their son, Moses, in Harrison/Barbour County. John Abram Marple died 10 February 1847 researchers say on Pecks Run, Barbour/later Upshur County, (West) Virginia, at 82 years of age probably at Moses' home. Barbara was still living with Moses in 1850. Their deaths are recorded in the Moses Marple Bible: "John A. Marple departed this life Feb 10th, 1847, Barbara A. Marple Departed this life Dec 12 1858"

John was a soldier in the War of 1812, serving two hitches, Fayette County, Pennsylvania 1812-1813 and Monongalia County, Virginia 1813-1814. He was discharged from Capt. Sangster's Company of the 12th Infantry Regiment on March 30, 1815.8

Census Records:

In 1820 Harrison County⁹, John Marpole [sic] family was as follows:

2 males ages 10-16, born 1804-1810 [John WEAVER, and Amos F.,]

2 males ages 16-20, [Jacob D. and Moses.]

3 females age 10-16, all born between 1804-1810. Researchers list only two daughters, Elizabeth, b. 1810 and Eliza b. 1811. Tetrick Collection lists: Mary, but no Elizabeth. 10

There is NO older female, listed in the census. Where was Barbary?

1830 Lewis County census: there are two John Marpel [sic]. One would be John and Barbary and the other their son, John WEAVER MARPLE, who married in 1827.

The elder John is listed as age 60-70 and there is an older female the same age, probably, Barbary. There is a younger female, 15-20, male 20-30 and male 5-10.

In 1840 Harrison County: the older Marples, John and Barbary, are probably living with Moses Marple and are the male and female, age 60-70. Barbara Marple, age 79, was still living with Moses in 1850, John having died in 1847.

⁷ Upshur County was formed in 1851 from Randolph, Barbour & Lewis counties, Barbour was formed in 1843 from Harrison, Lewis and Randolph.

His body was interred after 07 April 1861 in Elk District, Pepper, Barbour County, (West) Virginia, Chrislip Cemetery - Peppertown. He married twice. He married probably Nancy in probably Harrison County, (West) Virginia, about 1820. He married Nancy Stackhouse in Barbour County, West Virginia about 26 June 1844. Marriage bond dated 26 June 1844, Crislip, the daughter of William T. Crislip and Hannah Ward. He is the grandson of Amos Marple, who was a son of Abraham Marple. His grandfather was a soldier in the 10th West Virginia Infantry, under Captain J. L. Gould. Was fifer of Company B., of that Regiment and served throughout the war. His wife's maiden name was Jemima Cummins."[Cummings] Amos died 01 February 1884 in Upshur County. West Virginia, at 79 years of age. 21 He may be buried in the Beechtown Cemetery in Upshur County. He married Jemima Cummings in Lewis County, (West) Virginia 07 December 1830.²²

Jemima was born in Virginia about 1812. Jemima died 04 January 1894 in Upshur County, West Virginia, at 81 years of age.

iv. John WEAVER Marple was born in Pennsylvania 15 April 1805. John died 17 August 1880 in Upshur County, West Virginia at 75 years of age. His body was interred 17 August 1880 in Upshur County, West Virginia, McVaney Cemetery. He married Ruth Reger in Lewis County, (West) Virginia 17 April 1827. Ruth was born 15 July 1809. Ruth died 06 December 1892 at 83 years of age.

v. Elizabeth Marple was born in Virginia July 1810. Elizabeth died 07 March 1846 in (West) Virginia, at 35 years of age. She married Rev. Elias BENNETT in Harrison County (West) Virginia, 19 January 1828. She is listed as the daughter of John and Barbery Marple.

Howell.²³ She is listed as the daughter of John Marple on the marriage bond²⁴ and #2 William Thrash. She died 25 September 1893 Petroleum, Ritchie County, West Virginia and is buried in the Petroleum Cemetery.

vii. Mary Marple? Speculation: the 1820 census lists three females born between 1804-1810. One of the files in the Tetrick papers gives the name of Mary as one of his children.²⁵

Note: Researcher Nancy Jackson says there is an order in Harrison County stating that John Marple had a female ward named Elizabeth. No further information.

Jacob D. Marple was a farmer on Brushy Fork, near Pepper, Barbour County, West Virginia. Marple researchers give his parents as John Abram and Barbary Ann (WEAVER) Marple and the preponderance of evidence seems to verify this assumption. He fits in the age bracket for a male child born 1794-1804, in the John Marple household in 1820. He resided near other members of the family. He named his children after family: a daughter Barbara (mother) and sons John (father) and Amos (brother) and a daughter (Eliza) and his first child Mary (possibly named for a sister?).

Early in the 1820's he married and by 1830 had several children. Some researchers list as many as 12 children for him. I have included them in the genealogy with notes, but have not verified them all.

On 9 January 1861, Jacob D. and Nancy Marple deeded their land to their son, John Edward Marple. This was a covenant deed where the place Jacob resided was conveyed in return for support of Jacob D. and Nancy, including medical support. Jacob died on 7 April of the same year, so he was likely ill at the time he made the covenant with his son. The land included 96 acres that had been conveyed to Jacob D., by Jacob and Elizabeth Crisip, located on Brushy Fork, verified in Barbour County Deed Book 2:403, dated 18 March 1849. In the covenant record, Jacob D. also conveyed to John Edward

Marple, 19 poles that had been conveyed to him by P. Reed. 27 On 17 March 1851, Jonathan P. REED and Mehalia conveyed to J. D. MARPLE, 44 ½ acres on Brushy Fork of Elk Creek & Simson Creek. 28 In January 1861, Andrew TRIMBLE and Barbara his wife conveyed to J. E. Marple. 28

> i.  Mary (Penelope) Marple. There is some confusion with her name, which I believe to be Mary. Both names are on the Tetrick papers, and records show she named a daughter Penelope. No marriage is found for her to Joseph M. Dicks but Mary Dicks, age 30, born 1820, is listed in 1850 Harrison County census, the wife of Joseph M. Dicks, age 35, a cooper. They have children, (note the similar names) Job, 13, Penelope I/J., age 11, Matilda, age 9, Jacob, age 7 and Andrew T., age 5. They are living two doors from the John and Sarah (Teter) Day family and Joseph Day, age 22 whose wife is Mary's sister, Ingaby Day, age 18. In 1870 this family was living in New Milton Township, Doddridge County. Mary was 40 and Joseph, 55, with children Andrew, Jacob M. and Nancy C. In 1880 Doddridge census, Joseph is 65, cabinet maker and Mary is 60. There was no death record for either Joseph or Mary in Doddridge County.30

Penelpe [sic] Jane "Dick", age 23, born in Harrison County, residing in Doddridge, married on 15 February 1863, Joshua Bee, age 25, born Harrison, residing in Doddridge. Penelope was the daughter of Joseph M. and Mary Dicks, Joshua was the son of Amaziah and Rhoda Bee. On 1900 Joshua was living with his son, Edward. On 31 October 1905

Job Dicks, age 30 born Harrison County, son of Joseph and Mary, married Artmissa Cottrill, age 17, born Barbour County, residing Harrison on 17 July 1867. In 1870 Job and Artemesia are living next door to William and Marian Corder, his aunt.

ii. Barbara Marple. She was born 7 January 1822 and died 16 February 1898 at the home of BENNETT at Grafton. She married John Andrew Trimble in Harrison County, (West) Virginia, 27 June 1842.32 Their marriage bond in Harrison County is dated 8 June 1842.33 He was born 6 June 1822 in Virginia and died 7 June 1882 Barbour County, West Virginia.34 Barbara is not listed in the 1850 Barbour census unless the census taker made a mistake and gave her the name "Mary Sasson". This Mary is the correct age for Barbara, age 27. Andrew is age 27, and there are 5 children: Barbara, age 7, Sarah, age 6, Calvin, age 4, Nancy, age 3 and Elizabeth, age 1. In 1860, living in Barbour County, A. Trimble is age 37, Barbary, age 37, Birth is calculated from her tombstone death age of 60y4m. Emeline died 14 January 188435 in probably Barbour County, West Virginia. Her body was interred after 14 January 1884 in Elk District, Pepper, Barbour County, (West) Virginia, Chrislip Cemetery -Peppertown. She married Thomas Clevenger They are listed in the 1860 census for Barbour County with two children, Jacob, age 5 and Nancy E., age 3. They are living two doors from James and Matilda Coslow.

- iv. Eliza Marple was born in Harrison County, (West) Virginia 18 March 1825. Eliza died 14 May 1855 in Barbour County, (West) Virginia, at 30 years of age.36 She died in childbirth. - vi. Matilda Marple. She married Mr. Bee. She is listed in one of the FGS in the Tetrick records. SPECULATION: Searches for Matilda Bee on Ancestry have failed to locate this family in Barbour or surrounding counties in West Virginia. There is room for a female child her age in the 1840 census (see below). There is living a few doors from Jacob D. Marple in 1850 a Matilda Costilow, wife of James Costilow. She is age 23, born in 1827. James Jr. and Matilda Coslow were living two doors from Thomas and Emeline (Marple) Clevenger in 1860. This is pure speculation at this point as I have been unable to prove this Matilda Costilow as a child of Jacob, either. I am placing this here for reference only. Further research needed.
- vii. Amos G. Marple was born in Harrison/Barbour County, (West) Virginia 21 November 1828. Amos died 28 March 1908 in Barbour County. West Virginia, at 79 years of age. His body was interred after 28 March 1908 in Elk District, Pepper, Barbour County, West Virginia, Chrislip Cemetery - Peppertown. He married twice. Supplemental settlement filing on August 1868. 50 Jacob Lawson, administrator for John E. Marple.

Census Records:

In 1830 Jacob was living in Harrison County. He was listed as age 30-40 [born 1790-1800] one male under 5 [1825-1830] who was probably Amos G. Marple.

Females:

4 females under the age of 5 [1825-1830].

Marian/Mary Ann born 1830

Saphronia born 1826.

Eliza born 1825.

Matilda ? (unconfirmed possibly born 1827)

Two females age 5-10, [1820-1825].

Emeline born 1823

Barbara born 1822

Two females 10-20, [1800-1810].

One of these is probably his wife, whose first name was probably Nancy.

One – unknown (could this check have been meant for Mary/Penelope and placed in the wrong box on the form?

One older female 50-60 [1770-1780]. This may have been his wife's mother, as I believe that his own mother was living with her son, Moses.

In 1840 Harrison County, Jacob's household included:

1 male under 5	[1835-1840]	Alvin?
1 male 10-15	[1825-1830]	Amos
1 male 30-40	[1800-1810]	Jacob
1 female under 5	[1835-1840]	Catherine
2 females 5-10	[1830-1835)	Marian & Ingaby
2 females 10-15	[1825-1830]	Sophronia & Eliza
2 females 15-20	[1820-1825]	Barbara & Emeline
1 female 30-40	[1800-1810]	WIFE

⁵⁰ Ibid: Bk3:22.

1 female 60-70 [1770-1780]

Note, there should be a check for another female: Matilda?

We know that Jacob's second wife was Nancy Stackhouse and that they were married in 1844, which proves she is not the mother of his children. But, who was? Was her given name Nancy, as well? Was she a daughter of John Patton who was living near Jacob D. Marple in 1840 and with him in 1850, with his second wife, Sarah Stout, whom he married in 1823? One would think not, since there is an older woman living with the Marple family in the 1830 and 1840 census who could have been her mother. Unless, John and Mary (Webb) Patton, (married November 16, 1795 in Harrison County) were divorced. In this case she could have been John Patton's daughter. John and Mary Webb Patton had two proven children, Ruth, born about 1802 and John, born about 1808. There are three females born between 1800 and 1810 listed in that years' census, so there may be two more daughters. John had a sister named Nancy, and his brother, Robert and sister Keziah each named a daughter, Nancy.51

Were both of Jake Marple's wives named Nancy? Probably. Proven documentation confirms this. On Amos G. Marple's second marriage record he is listed as the son of Jacob and Nancy. John E. Marple's marriage record lists him as the son of Jacob D. and Nancy. Eliza Marple Crislip's death record gives her parents as Jacob and N. Marple. Eliza (Marple) Crislip and Emeline (Marple) Clevenger each named a child Nancy, as did Barbara (Marple) Trimble, Marian

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS IN THE HAMMOND- DAVIS ANCESTOR FILES plus 2 of the early Governors of Massachusetts in the 1600's

by Ethel Nielson

News trickled into the frontier following the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, that the contest with Great Britain was ripening into a war of unconditional surrender. The treaty ending the Revolutionary War was signed in Paris on September 3, 1783.

When one reflects on the dangers from Indian attacks, and the many hardships pioneers faced, it is amazing our ancestors volunteered to also fight for independence from the British. As you read the following history of our pioneer ancestors, remember the voice of John F. KENNEDY who once said: "It is important to remember not what can my country do for me, but what can I do for my country." What our ancestors did for our country will never be forgotten. It is with great pride their sacrifices are remembered.

The Ancestors of Zona Blanch DAVIS (1900-1980)

JOHNATHAN LAMBERT (1740-1796)

Extracted from the Virginia House of Delegates and Senate Journals 1777, page 589, REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORDS, VA states it is the opinion of the committee: "that the petition of Jonathan LAMBERT and Christopher BAKER, praying to be allowed for their services as soldiers in Capt. LOWTHER's Co. of Militia, their names being omitted in the pay roll, is reasonable, and that the said Jonathan LAMBERT ought to be allowed the sum of one pound, 5 shillings 6d the amount of his pay for 17 days, and the said Christopher BAKER the sum of 9 pounds 18 s for 132 days.

Johnathan LAMBERT 's daughter Hannah married William DAVIS, Jr., the great-great-grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

SGT. WILLIAM DAVIS (abt 1792-after 1796)

Sgt. William DAVIS born about 1742, with wife Jean, was the grandfather of Wm Lloyd DAVIS who married Catherine SWIGER ASH on February 18, 1813 in Harrison County, Va. William LLOYD's father was William Joseph DAVIS, Jr. (1770-1812) who married Hannah LAMBERT on April 12, 1790. William Lloyd had a son Christian Anderson DAVIS who married Sarah Jane GRIFFIN in 1847. Christian Anderson was the grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

Sgt. Wm DAVIS enlisted July 18, 1776 for 3 years in the 7th Virginia Regiment. The 7th was sometimes designated at the 11th and 15th Regiment. His record shows Book Mark, R&P 410200. His last pay record was July 1779 when he received 3 pounds. From May to June he was at Camp Smith's Clover. He was discharged Aug. 31, 1779, but the record does not indicate a place. The records are in Vol. 176, page 130, created by the Auditor's Office, 1 August 1792. He received a certificate for the balance of full pay on August 2, 1783, the sum of 68 Pounds, 4 shillings.

In 1778 and 79 he served under Col. Daniel MORGAN. His records indicate he was at Valley Forge from March to April in 1778 and again in February 1778 under Charles PORTERFIELD. Other camps mentioned in his papers include Camp Middlebrook in '79; Pompton, '78; Newark '78; Camp Paramus; Camp White Plains, and a camp near Board Brook in 1777. His commanders kept changing and included Captains. RICE, MORGAN, PORTERFIELD, WEST, and Col. CROPPER.

PVT. JOHN WADE LOOFBOURROW (1746-1874)

Pvt. John Wade LOOFBOURROW (Loughborough) served with the 8th Batalion, Capt. James YOUNG's Company commanded by Col. Abraham SMITH in 1779. He was born 28 April 1746 in Perth Amboy, New Jersey. He married Mary HOFF 10 Sept. 1767. He was the grandfather of Martha HARBERT GRIFFIN whose daughter Sara Jane married Christian Anderson DAVIS

September 9, 1847. Again, Christian Anderson DAVIS was the grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

PVT. REV. JOHN CORBLY, SR (1732-1803)

Pvt. Rev. John CORBLY Sr., according Collin's "History of Kentucky" Volume I, pp. 12, finds the name of John CORBLY in Captain William HARROD's Company in 1780. Page 582 of the Ten Mile Country & Its Pioneer Families says: His capacity was that of a private soldier....As many of the men of this list were with HARROD on the Clark Expedition, it is quite possible that Rev. CORBLY went out at that time. It is a period of his life about which little is known.

He was born in England Feb. 25, 1733 and died in Greene County Pa. June 9, 1803. His first wife was Abigail BULL, born in 1734 and died in Virginia about 1768. His second wife and several of their children were scalped by the Indians in the May 10, 1782 massacre at GARRARDs Fort. The daughter from the first marriage, Rachel, born 1760, died 1842, married Justus GARRARD; he is the grandfather of Sarah GARRARD who married Samuel MORRIS; their daughter Rachel married John DYE. John DYE was the great-great grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND (1900-1980).

JONATHAN MORRIS(1753-1841)

Jonathan MORRIS #S-7247 Served in the Revolution from Greene County, PENN. On the 17th day of March, 1834 he appeared in open court before the Honorable Thomas H. BAIRD, age 80 years and nine months and made the following declaration in order to obtain benefit of the act of congress June 7th, 1832. He stated he moved at the age of ten or twelve to the waters of Whitely cheek. At the time there was no settlement west of them in the now Greene County. They lived at the Muddy Creek Settlement one year but moved back to the Whitely Creek settlement and with other members erected the Garrard Fort. He went as a spy to the Ohio River at one time and another time with a captain John WILSON in pursuit of Indians. Also, he performed a six month tour under the order of Governor DUNMORE at early periods. They had no regular officers but when there was an alarm, the whole Fort turned out and went in pursuit of the Indians. During the entire War he was constantly doing duty in the Fort or out spying or on scouting parties for a period of over two years. He said he was born 15 June 1753 in Virginia.

Jonathan's brother George MORRIS also served in the Revolution as well as Governor DUNMORE's army in 1774. He was captain of the company which followed the band of Indians that murdered the CORBLY family. The massacre took place on Sunday, May 10, 1782, Garrards Fort, close to the village of Kirby, Pennsylvania.

Jonathan married Sarah DAVIS born before 1778 in Staunton, Virginia. Their son Samuel married Sarah GARRARD in 1802 and their daughter Rachel (1803-1883) married John DYE in 1821. John DYE was the great-great-grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND (1900-1980).

ANDREW DYE (1748-1835)

Andrew and his family came to Pa in 1771, settling first at the Forks of the Yochk where he received a Va land grant on Froman's Run in 1774. On March 28, 1780 he was recommended as first lieutenant in the Yohogania County militia, but, there is no further mention of his position, since, by the fall of 1780, the Yohogenia court had ceased to exist, and Andrew DYE had resettled across the Monongahela on Big Whitely Creek.

In 1786, AFTER THE WAR, he served as Captain of the 6th Co, 4th battalion of the Washington County militia, for which he received a pension. (Pa. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. III, p. 1367) In 1803 he removed to Miami County Ohio, where on July 4, 1827 he offered the following toast at a meeting of Revolutionary War veterans: "The Fourth of July, 1776, a day ever to be remembered; health and prosperity to all who assisted in delivering the present generation from the weight of the yoke of British Tyranny."

Andrew married Sarah MINOR in 1768 and their son James Reason married Mary KNIGHT in 1780. John (1803-1860) son of James Reason DYE married Rachel MORRIS (1803-1883). Rachel is the great-great-grandmother of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

DAVID KINNEY (1757-1835)

The following entry appears in the Prothonotary Dock Book #A-34, Court Records, Greene County, as copied by Lloye W. ROUPE, Cornerstone Clues, November, 1985: "Page 91, Death of David KINNEY, a pensioner of the U.S. on the 4th December, 1835 leaving a widow named Elisabeth proved to the satisfaction of the court."

There was no military record for David KINNEY, so his pension was based on his recollection of his military stint. Accord to excerpts from David's deposition: "he was born in the fall of 1757. On the 17th May,1775, he became a militiaman for one month, under Captain Jacob WINTERS. He had gone to military duty from his residence in Greenwich Township, Sussex County, New Jersey. Went out again for one month, and again under Went out again under Captain John Captain WINTERS. CULPEPPER—marched against the Tories who had retired to the Blue Mountains; this was approximately October of 1775. In April 1776, he marched to Pumpton; He served under Major John FLEET, Colonel HOOPS and General Anthony WAYNE. He served at different times through 1776, mostly in Elizabeth Town." In his wife's deposition in 1845, she said he was a private in the New Jersey line.

David's granddaughter Elmina KINNEY (1830-1902) married Eli Bee FLEMING in 1852. Eli Bee FLEMING was the grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND (1900-1980)

JOHN LANTZ (1749-1817)

John LANTZ was a soldier (private) in the Pennsylvania Militia. Penn. Archives Series V, Vol. 5 pp 117 and Penn Archives Series VI, Vol. 3, pp 770-562-573; his service is also quoted in Sons of American Revolution by Joseph GRAHAM, 13 Sept. 1974.

John Lance (LANTZ) served in Bedford County, Penn. under Capt. Henry Rush 1780-1783. This record is from the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, Division of Archives and Manuscripts, Harrisburg. John was born in Monococy River, Md., and died in Greene County, Pa. His second marriage was to Barbara WAGGONER (1756-1850). Their daughter Elizabeth(1800-1884) married George Fielding CUMBERLEDGE the great-great-grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

Interestingly, the daughter of Elizabeth LANTZ and George Fielding CUMBERLEDGE had a daughter also named Elizabeth CUMBERLEDGE (1823-1902) who married Samuel DYE; and, his son George Fielding DYE (1849-1918) was the grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

ANDREW JOHN ROSIER ROE (1779-1829)

John ROE, (ROW, ROWE) served in New Jersey. From WEST VIRGINIANS in the REVOLUTION compiled and edited by Ross B. JOHNSON: ROW, (ROWE or ROE) Service—New Jersey, Va No 1794, pension file Number W 5726 says he enlisted in 1779 in Morris County, New Jersey, in the company of Captain COX in the Third Jersey Regiment, commanded by Colonel Francis BARBER, General SULLIVAN and General LAFAYETTE, and took part in the battles at Springfield, New Jersey and Jamestown, Va. He remained in service until 1781. He received his pension in Harrison County in 1818. One source said: "Soldier received pension in Harrison County in 1818, which was suspended but later restored. His widow received pension in 1839. Supporting data was filed by D.CANE, John LONG, and Humphrey FAIRES."

According to his widow Susannah MEEKS, when she filed for pension in 1839, she said they were married the 27^{th} day of March 1779 and he was an enlisted soldier in the Third Jersey regiment. Her residence was near the British lines, and she suffered great hardships when his regiment was ordered to Virginia to stop Cornwallis. Susannah's application for his pension states he died on 29th of September 1829; her application was dated May 11, 1837. She stated her age was 72 and she signed her name Susanna ROE.

John ROE's daughter Clarissa (Clary) ROE married John FLEMING in 1803; their son Eli Bee FLEMING was the great-grandfather of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

The roll of this company included the names of Jacob YOUNGMAN, Thomas HARBERT, and John JONES. The son of Thomas was certified later for 400 acres which would indicate his service was recognized. His son John married Sarah LOOFBOURROW in 1789. Their daughter Martha HARBERT married James Scarff GRIFFIN in 1820. Their daughter Sarah Jane GRIFFIN married Christian Anderson DAVIS in 1847. Their son John Bee was the father of Zona Blanch DAVIS HAMMOND.

SIMON BRADSTREET Governor of Mass. 1688-1692

The Thomas HARBERT ancestors include two Governors of Mass. Thomas DUDLEY who sailed to America on April 11, 1630 on the same ship with John WINTHROP the newly appointed Governor of Mass. John WINTHROP chose Thomas DUDLEY as Deputy Governor. Simon BRADSTREET served as Governor from 1679-86 and again from 1688-1692. After the

The Joseph Clarence HAMMOND (1895-1952)
Ancestors

DANIEL WIGNER (1755-1840)

Daniel is listed in the men who served at Valley Forge under Washington in the year 1777. He drove a team with provisions between the head of Elk and Valley Forge. He served for 12 months and was dismissed by Nickolas WEAVER who was Captain over the Waggons. Daniel also served in the Militia where he marched to the Delaware River under General Potter. He served again in 1781 and a record of his service can be found in his application for pension # S-3605 made after the Congress Act of June 7, 1832 and is found in the National Archives. He also served with Capt. VALENTINE marching to Amboy in Jersey and then on into Delaware to Fort Lee. He also served under Capt. David SHUPE.

Daniel's Grandmother, Susanna Seipt WIEGNER, brought six children (Susanna, Maria, Abraham, George, Rosina) to America with the SCHWENCKFELDERS, a religious group, which fled Lower Silesia to escape persecution. They were welcomed by the Quakers. They landed (263) in Philadelphia from the ship ST. ANDREW on 22 Sept. 1734, along with many other followers of the little known 16th C Protestant Reformer, Caspar SCHWENCKFELD von OSSIG, a Silesian Nobleman, who was once a friend of Martin LUTHER. LUTHER SCHWENCKFELD had a bitter disagreement on the meaning of the Lord's Supper. Schwenkfeld believed the Supper to be an acted-out parable. LUTHER believed that the elements became actually the flesh and blood of Christ. Of the more than six thousand followers in Germany during the 1600's, only a few more than 200 escaped the vicious persecution from both the Lutheran and Roman Church during the first thirty years of the 1700's. Two former members of President REAGAN's Cabinet were also former Sunday School teachers in the Schwenkfelder Church, Worchester, Pa. They were Sen. SCHWEIKER, Secretary of Health and Human Services, and Drew LEWIS, Secretary of Transportation.

Daniel WIGNER married Elizabeth EMIG; their daughter Catherine married Peter ASH. The daughter of Peter and Catherine, Susanna, married Joseph HAMMOND (1822-1904) in 1844. Joseph is the grandfather of Joseph Clarence HAMMOND (1895-1952).

ADAM ASH (1743-1819)

I have living testimony of the first tour commencing July 1777 and ending in October of the same year, but have neither living or documentary evidence of the last tour commencing May 1780 and ending July following. I enlisted in the same year 1780 for the space of three company not having been filled up. I remained on furlow most the next summer. The Spanish American War

by Bette Butcher Topp

How many people really know about the Spanish American War? I must say that I knew only a few things until I started working on this war for my research. I knew that in 1898 Teddy Roosevelt rode up San Juan Hill in Havana, Cuba with his Rough Riders.

I grew up with the tradition that my father, Hobart Sampson BUTCHER, who was born 9 July 1898 in Spencer, Roane Co had gotten his middle name from an Admiral who was in the Spanish America War. Also that his cousin, John Dewey BUTCHER was given his middle name from some officer. I think John definitely got the best of that deall

There REALLY was a Admiral William SAMPSON and a Commodore George DEWEY! So the family stories were actually true -

I also knew that the United States had lost a battleship, called the "THE MAINE" during this battle. This ship was commissioned as a 2nd class battleship on 17 Sep 1895 and was built in the Navy Yard in Brooklyn, NY. It had a speed of 15 knots and was under the command of Capt. Charles SIGSBEE. This ship weighed 6,682 tons, was 319 feet long and it's beam was 57" wide. It also carried six 6" Colt Gatling guns for landing parties and had four 14" surface torpedo tubes.

This war not only involved Cuba but also the Philippines, Guam, Spain and Puerto Rico. Cuba wanted separation from Spain and their 2nd insurrection began in Feb of 1895. In Aug 1896 the Philippine revolution began and in December of that year, they lost their national hero, Dr. Jose RIZAL who was executed by Spanish troops.

In March of 1897 William McKINLEY was inaugurated as President of the United States. By August, the Spanish Prime Minister was assassinated and in Jan 1898 Spain instituted limited political autonomy in Cuba. [that is a familiar term, right?]

On February 15, 1898 The Maine blew up in Havana Harbor killing 266 crewman and a Naval Board of Inquiry into the loss of the battleship created THE SAMPSON BOARD". That name again.

Theodore ROOSEVELT, then assistant secretary of the Navy, cabled Commodore DEWEY to be ready if war were to break out. So - - - Congress authorized $50 million for a war fund. The Admiral's squadron started for the Cape Verde Islands and another battleship, The Oregon, left San Francisco for Florida by way of Tierra del Fuego in a hurry.

The SAMPSON Board of Inquiry Report finished their work and stated that The Maine was lost to a mine in the harbor. I believe there is now work to further find the cause of this blast.]

Pres. William McKINLEY sent a note to Spain demanding an end to the war in Cuba. Spain however, turned down the demands for Cuban independence. At that time, the U.S. House of Representatives then authorized $22.6 million for more navy ships. The Pope asked McKINLEY to not declare war pending his negotiations with Spain. Then the Ambassadors of England, German, France, Italy, Austria and Russia appealed to President McKINLEY for peace. (As Yogi BERRA used to say - Deja Vue all over again)

The Rough Riders was formed of men from the western frontiers of the U.S.. These were men who were used to using firearms of all types (at that time) and skilled in horsemanship. Course this was for different reasons, instead of hunting to feed their families, now it was to fight a war.

When the news that ROOSEVELT was raising a regiment, there were volunteers from all over. Twenty-three hundred men volunteered in the first 24 hours, but only a small percentage would be accepted. So at the time of muster, the unit consisted of 47 officers and 994 enlisted men. Because of the tremendous energy of ROOSEVELT, who had been in the public eye before and his use of public relations, the unit gained much publicity even before battle.

They were sent to Port Tampa, Florida, for the invastion of Cuba. But there was so much confusion there and such disorganization, several regiments were assigned to the same transport, the Yucatan.

ROOSEVELT was able to get his men aboard hoping that once on board, they would not be told ti disembark. So because there was a great lack of room to transport the rest of the troops, only eight of the reiment's twelve troops actually went to Cuba, with some staying in Florida. This transporation problem made the regiment leave its horses behind and essentially they served in Cuba as an infantry regiment.

The First West Virginia Volunteer Infantry was mustered into service between 7th and 14th of May 1898 at Fort

Lee which was across the Kanawha River from the city of Charleston, WV. On 20th May 1898 they left for Camp Thomas in Chickamauga, TN.

The First WV Volunteers were one of the units that served in the US, both in Knoxville, TN and Columbus, GA. They were mustered out of service at Columbus, GA on 4th Feb 1899 which was the same day the Philippine-American War began. The Spanish American War had ended on 10th Dec 1898.

During the unit's term of service, it had one officer dismissed, fourteen enlisted had died from disease, one enlisted died in an accident, two enlisted men were court-martialed, fourteen enlisted men were discharged for reasons of disability and forty-four men deserted.

Admiral DEWEY's squadron left China for the Philippines and he defeated the Spanish at the Battle of Manila Bay. Admiral SAMPSON bombarded San Juan, Puerto Rico without warning and Teddy ROOSEVELT started training the Rough Riders.

The Marines captured Guam and on July 1st, the Battles of San Juan Hill and El Caney began. The U. S. Army Invaded Puerto Rico and that resulted in a U.S. victory so Spain accepted McKINLEY's terms of peace. U.S. forces took Manila and on 13th Sept. the Rough Riders were mustered out of service and the Spanish senate approved the peace protocol. Spain agreed to cede the Philippines and the Treaty of Paris ended the Spanish American War.

The majority of those who served in this war applied for benefits at some time. This should probably be the first step because their applications provide a wealth of information.

They generally contain a synopsis of the person's military service, applications listing spouses, children, dates of birth, death, marriage, addresses, etc. Also these records include affidavits from people who knew the pensioner which describe him, his health and tidbits about that person.

This is just one more area of research that will help to put meat on the bones of your ancestors and tell a more detailed story of their lives.

Volunteer organizations were designated by number/state - the 1st WV Volunteers.

There is a complete listings of military personnel with the rosters they have at the present that http://www.spanamwar.com/geneaol.htm under veterans.

Many are confused by the military designations. The same unit can have several different designations - for instance, the "Rough Riders" were officially the First U.S. Volunteer Cavalry. The Navy usually just listed the rank and the ship. The Army were designated "U.S." units with a regiment number such as the 10th U.S. Infantry. Volunteer organizations were designated usually by number and state, i.e. the 1st N.Y. Infantry (inf) or artillery (art) or cavalry (cav).

Part 2

17 We were in Mount Carmel to a SHOW. It consisted of 1 elephant, 2 lions, 2 tigers, 2 panthers, 1 leopard, 1 lama, a number of monkies (sic), 1 dead ostrich (he was stuffed and was--when he was still alive—about 10 feet high and weighed, if I have remembered rightly, 300 lbs.), and a ?acaw, a very beautiful bird of the parrot family. His head and body were red, his wings gold and blue, and his rather long tail red and black. In the evening Mother was at John D. STEMPEL's. We stayed at Grandfather's overnight.

It rained a lot in the morning. Windy and cool.

18 In the morning I went again to the little town and saw another ostrich (he was alive and not as big as the dead one), 2 adjutants, 1 sandhill crane, 1 Crown crane, and a lynx. These were not with the show yesterday because the wagons they were in had broken down. In the afternoon Mother and Grandmother went to the Aunts' and Jacob RIDENOUR's. In the evening Grandfather and I were also at Jacob's.

Cloudy for the most part. It snowed in the morning. Windy and cold.

19 I was at Grandfather's. Mother and Grandmother were at Martin STEMPEL's and BINGEMAN's.

Overcast, and a cool wind.

20 We went to a prayer meeting in the church house; it was held in the church but the preacher didn't come. In the evening my grandparents, Mother and I went to Henry LANTZ's and overnighted there.

In the morning it snowed about an inch, then it rained and was quite cold.

21 We went on from there, over the Cheat—a very stony and rocky stream, somewhat larger than the Mahoning River—up the Buffalo Creek, over Laurel Hill to Mr. GRASS'. From there we went twice over the Big Sandycreek, and once over the little one, to Uncle John LANTZ's at the Cove Settlement and stayed there overnight. He is Aunt Susann's second husband. From Grandfather STEMPEL's to Uncle John LANTZ's it is about 30 miles. The route we traveled is but very thinly populated.

Overcast, foggy. In the evening it rained. Gusty and rather cold.

- 22 I was at Uncle LANTZ's. The others were at Mr. MILLER's (father-in-law to Martin RIDENOUR). He is a rich farmer, for they said he has over 100 haystacks and several horned cattle--and yet not one teaspoon in the house. They also went to Samuel NESTOR's; his wife is the sister of Uncle LANTZ. In the evening Grandfather LANTZ and to the elder NESTOR's. He is a rich, but also eccentric, man-for when he is in a bad humor he will say almost no word to a stranger; and he was somewhat like that this evening. MILLER said that every day about 100 squirrels were in his cornfield. At another place a man had about forty bushels of husked corn lying in his field and when he went to bring it home, a few days later, he found only the cobs and a few ends; the rest had been devoured by the squirrels. So they told me. Several places in the meadow where Uncle LANTZ now lives are so full of crayfish holes that one almost touches the other. The Coves is a very rugged country which does not please me.
 - We traveled back again to Henry LANTZ's (father of John LANTZ) and ate there in the evening. Uncle LANTZ came along. And from there we went that same day to Grandfather's. At noon we fed the horses at a very wretched-looking farmer's cottage.

Clear and beautiful. The ground was frozen in the morning.

24 Rinehart SIMON and I went to Uncle Peter HECKERT's, Solomon HECKERT's, John RUDOLPH's, George HECKERT's and Uncle John WHEELER's. All together at Uncle John WHEELER's were my great-grandfather (in his 93rd year); his oldest child-my grandmother-in her 66th year; her eldest child-my mother-in her 44th year, and her eldest child-me-in my 23rd year. In the evening we were at an Apple Cutting at Grandfather STEMPEL's.

Cloudy, windy and lovely.

25 I helped Grandfather turn out potatoes. In the evening we went to a Corn Husking at John RIDENOUR's. Last night Mother was at Uncle Peter HECKERT's and today, at Uncle Wilhelm WHEELER's, Uncle Jacob RINEHART's, Mr.

STARTMAN's and John RIDENOUR's.

Mostly cloudy with a cold wind.

26 We went to Mr. CASTEN's, SPESSERT's, and to the widow Eva Ruth's. I went to Uncle George RINEHART's and stayed there overnight, and Mother went to SPESSERT's. Uncle John D. STEMPEL went with us.

Cloudy and cool. Last night it stormed and snowed.

We went to Mount Carmel to the church where Herr Pastor PLATE preached in German and a Methodist preacher in the English language. In the evening we were at John STEMPEL's and at Mr. WILTS and stayed at grandfather's overnight.

Overcast and cool.

28 About eleven lo'clock in the morning Mother and I took our leave from Grandfather STEMPEL's; went to Uncle George RINEHART's, ate there at noon; left there and—in the company of Mr. John RUDOLPH, his wife and Miss Elizabeth HECKERT, were traveling with us to the State of Ohio—went to Cousin STEYER's and Cousin LOHR's. RINEHART and I and our mother stayed at Mr. LOHR's and the others at Mr. STEYER's overnight.

Mostly cloudy with a cold wind.

leave from Cousin LOHR's and went to Mr. STEYER's. He is a very sociable man. Then our traveling party, which numbered seven persons, left there and turned right at the fence, down through the Glades, over the Savage, over the State Road, over the Youghagany, past Mr. WHITE's, past a large white frame house where a Mr. LYNN lives, past Mr. ?CHUDER's, then along a secluded road to Mr. SUM?ER's, past John BISHOFF's mill; from there we went about a half mile further to Mr. RODENZIER's, who lives a short distance away from the road which leads from Selbysport to Kingwood, and fed the horses there. I paid 6½;. From there we took the Selbysport Road and traveled about 11 miles and stayed overnight with a widow woman named SAYER. She had 7 beds in one room.

Overcast, a chilly wind and cold.

Today we saw bear, wolf and deer tracks, and two tame deer.

30 Morning; Mother and I paid 55¢. Then we rode over Morgantown Road 1½ miles. Then we turned off left from the road through a lane, went through a glade; at the upper end of it we took the right-hand road past a stone inn, left around the barn; below there we took the middle road, again over a crossroads, through another glade, past a newly-begun place, and came at the corner of a brushwood fence to another road; followed that about 1/2 mile and, at the corner of a fence, came to COLLIER's brick Inn (where a Mr. McMILLIN does the innkeeping, at the Turnpike--about two miles closer to Uniontown than where we had turned off it. We warmed ourselves at Mr. GRIFFIN's Inn and foddered the horses at the Monroe Inn. I paid 16% for a peck of oats. Then we rode as far as Mr. SEARIGHT's Inn, about 6 miles east of Brownsville, and staved there overnight.

Frozen hard in the morning. A very chilling wind, and cold Mr. SEARIGHT had 28 stalls in one stable.

31 Morning: Mother and I paid $1.25. Then we rode as far as Brownsville to Cousin GROFF's and ate breakfast there. After that we visited the glassworks and saw window glass blown and cut. We also went to see the steamboat, Lady Madison. There were the most beautiful rooms in that I have ever seen in my life. It lay on the Monongahela at Bridgeport.
